PHILATELIC JOURNAL OF CANADA. The Philatelic journal of Canada. A monthly devoted to stamp collecting.

8°. 9J in. Nos. 1-27. Nos. 1-50 were published by the Philatelic Publishing Co., and nos. 61-127 by O. H. Mekeel Stamp and Publishing Co. There is a title-page and a list of contents or an index to each volume, excepting vol. xiv., which has no index or list of contents, and there is a paper wrapper to each number. An extra number was issued of no. 34 for February, 1897, as a sample copy, with the words "Special Edition." This was pagged separately and consists of 54 pages with a coloured paper wrapper. There are two numbers for December, 1887, one dated "December, 1887," the other "December 19th." No. 36 wrongly dated "1887" in place of "1888," but has the year correctly given on the wrapper. The numbers for May and June, 1889, are wrongly numbered "52" and "53," instead of "52" and "54," but the numbering on the wrappers is correct for both months. Nos. 122, 123, 124 and 125 are wrongly numbered "52," "53," "54," and "55." No. 62 is wrongly dated "May and June, 1889," but has no date. It consists of (16) pages in a coloured paper wrapper. There is a title-page and an index to each volume excepting the last and a coloured paper wrapper to nos. 18, 27, 40, 44, 52, 56, 60, 65, 69, 73, 84 and 101. No. 147 is wrongly dated "1903" instead of "1902," but the year is correctly given on the wrapper. A "sample copy" for advertisement purposes was issued early in 1902. This is named "volume 15, number 6," but has no date. It consists of (15) pages in a coloured paper wrapper. There is no number 27 of vol. xvi. (whole no. 79).
