--- Timbres-poste. [Strasbourg, 1866].
12°. 7 in. 9 parts. I. 48 pp. II. pp. 49-183 + (1) p. While wrappers without any inscription.

* The stamps are interleaved and there is no title-page or index to the work. This, and the section described in the Catalogue with the date "1855," appear to be advanced copies of a new edition in French, which were sent to several prominent collectors for them to correct errors and make additions to the lists before the definitive work was published in 1867. Wanting. Copies of both parts are in the library of Mr. F. A. Bellamy of Oxford. These came from the library of Dr. A. Legrand of Paris.

--- Les Timbres-poste. Paris, 1867. [Edition with the "Avant-propos" dated "Juin, 1867"]. Add to note: This edition is also found with the name and address of "Pierre Mahé" on the front wrapper, as well as that of "Ve. Berger-Levrault & Fils," and with an advertisement of Pierre Mahé's on the back wrapper. The date on this variety of wrapper is "1867". Copies of the "Juin, 1867" edition are known interleafed and bound in green morocco, and were probably used for presentation purposes. One of this kind is in the library of Mr. F. A. Bellamy of Oxford. This came from the library of Dr. A. Legrand and contains numerous notes in his handwriting. Part II. of the 1867 edition, which was to have consisted of "Essais et timbres proposés" was never published.
